Find different 3D shapes around your house. Can you count how many faces the shape has and how many sides? Challenge: What shape can you find with the most faces?	Maths Go on a number hunt around your house. List the numbers you find. Can you say one more and one less than each of the numbers? Challenge: What is the largest number you can find in your house?	Maths Write out your number bonds to 10, each on a separate piece of paper/ card. Ask a grown up to hide them around your house. Can you find where all 11 are hidden?
Maths (Time 1) Ask a grown up to draw a number line from 1-12 and cut out an arrow (this will be your hour hand). Each number represents an hour on the clock, so if the arrow points to 1 it is showing 1 o'clock. Position your arrow on different numbers and read out the time. Then put your arrow half way between 2 numbers. This represents half past, so if your arrow is half way between 2 and 3, it is half past 3.	Maths (Time 2) Draw a round clock face and write the numbers 1-12. Make an hour hand and practice telling the time (o'clock and half past). Once you are confident, add minute hand. Where should it point for o'clock? Where should it point for half past? Link to a video on telling the time to o'clock and half past: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=V32tRiEQ2AA	Maths 20 is the magic number. What can you tell/show about this number? (Odd or even, < >, +, -, number bonds, written as a number, word problem etc.)	Maths Draw a selection of 2D shapes (square, triangle, circle, rectangle/oblong). Cut out the shapes and practice folding each shape into halves and quarters. Colour 1 half of each shape (1/2 or 2/4)

The Lost Toy

Dad was just boiling the kettle for tea, when his daughter, Joy, ran into the room.

"Dad!" exclaimed Joy in a loud voice, "I've lost my favourite toy rabbit, Boing!"

"Don't worry," said Dad, "We can find her! Where did you last have her?"

"I was playing shops," said Joy, "I wonder if Boing has got mixed in with the coins?"

Dad searched through the coins, but there was no sign of Boing.

"Where else have you been playing?" asked Dad.

"Well, I was digging outside in the soil," said Joy.

They walked outside.

"Can you show me where you were playing?" said Dad.

Joy pointed, but they still could not see Boing.

Suddenly, there was a loud "Oink!" It was coming from the pig pen.

"There's something wrong with Bertie!" shouted Joy and she ran over to the pen.

Dad joined Joy next to the pig pen and they peered in. They could just see a pair of bunny ears peeking out from underneath Bertie's loin.

"Oi, Bertie. You cheeky boy!" shouted Joy. "You are sitting on my favourite toy!"

Dad rescued Boing from underneath Bertie. She was a little bit muddy and moist, but luckily, she wasn't spoilt. Joy decided to give her a wash before bedtime though, which was a very good choice!
