Dear Parents /Carers,

It is with great sadness today that we bid farewell to Mrs Bradshaw, one of our Dinner Supervisors. Mrs Bradshaw has worked at Whitnash Primary School for over 27 years!! This is an amazing commitment and dedication to our school and we thank Mrs Bradshaw from the bottom of our hearts for all the support she has given the school and the children over this long service. We hope that she, like us all, will look back at her time at Whitnash with a great deal of affection. I know Mrs Bradshaw will be leaving to enjoy a well-earned rest! Good luck Mrs Bradshaw, we will miss you.

We also congratulate Mrs Marshall on her job. Mrs Marshall has also left us for pastures new. We thank her for her service to the school, both as a Dinner Supervisor and in Breakfast Club. Good luck Mrs Marshall, we will miss you too!

At the same time we say goodbye to some staff, we welcome on-board two new Dinner Supervisors. Mrs Gillatt and Mrs Sweet will be joining our staff on Monday. They have been in school today for training for their new lunchtime role and we are thoroughly looking forward to them beginning work with us next week.

Well done to the Year 4 pupils this week who took part in a Maths afternoon at Bishops Tatchbrook. These children met pupils from other schools and they all joined together for a times table competition. All the children represented the school brilliantly and thoroughly enjoyed this event.

Wishing you all a wonderful weekend!
Mrs Ellison, Headteacher

Book of The Week

Every week we shall be recommending a 'book of the week'.

KS2 - Murder Most Unladylike

When Daisy Wells and Hazel Wong set up their very own deadly secret detective agency at Deepdean School for Girls, they struggle to find any truly exciting mysteries to investigate. (Unless you count the case of Lavinia's missing tie. Which they don't, really.)

But then Hazel discovers the Science Mistress, Miss Bell, lying dead in the Gym. She thinks it must all have been a terrible accident – but when she and Daisy return five minutes later, the body has disappeared. Now the girls know a murder must have taken place . . . and there's more than one person at Deepdean with a motive.

'An exciting story which is funny too! It was a real page turner – I couldn't put it down! Definitely worth a read.' ~Mrs Norris

Help us prepare for the Christmas Fayre

Friday 15th December 2017

We would be really grateful for any help. This could be on the day manning a stall, making teas, or setting up the hall on the Friday afternoon.

You do not need to commit to all of the Fayre time, we understand that people are busy and want some time to go around themselves with their families, just let the PTA know what you can do and we will fit you in.

If you are happy to help could you please drop your contact details at reception. Thank you in advance.

We look forward to a happy and festive day!
